

MASTER OF CHURCH MUSIC

Total Number of Units: 112 Units

Students under the Master of Church Music degree program will develop their church music competencies. They will have relatively equal proportions of performance study, and supportive classes in music.

Graduates of this program will be competent in understanding the music ministry, planning creative worship services, playing instruments (especially the piano), singing (voice), musical performances and musicianship, teaching general music classes whether in a church or a school setting.

Students with a Bachelor of Church Music may be admitted to the MCM program proper provided that they pass the audition and placement. For non-Music graduates, any bachelor's degree from any recognized institution or from a foreign school duly recognized by their respective government, may be admitted in the program.
